Learn about the Literacy Essentials with teachers from the Read, Write, ROAR! TV series.

Teachers will demonstrate research-supported literacy instruction with fun and interactive lessons you can use in your classroom.

Free virtual training for grade K-3 educators. 1.0 SCECH hours available per session.

Using Read Alouds to Build Content and Vocabulary Knowledge
Tuesday, FEBRUARY 15 • 4-5 p.m.

Disciplinary Literacy in an Elementary Classroom
Tuesday, APRIL 19 • 4-5 p.m.

Literacy Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion
Tuesday, MARCH 15 • 4-5 p.m.

Summer Learning and Family Engagement
Tuesday, MAY 17 • 4-5 p.m.

All Sessions Hosted by:

Annie Spear
Michigan Association of Intermediate School Administrators (MAISA)

Questions?
Contact Annie at aspear@gomaisa.org

Lesson Presenters Include:

Shannon Fuller
Manistee ISD

Tan-A Hoffman
Joseph K. Lumsden Bhweting Anishnabe PSA

Jody Pung
Ionia County ISD

Shernita Rodgers
Wayne RESA Chandler Park Academy

Tracy Zarei-King
Kalamazoo Public Schools

Learn more and register at:
MichiganLearning.org/essentials

These materials were developed under a grant awarded by the Michigan Department of Education and the U.S. Department of Education.
Read, Write, ROAR! helps kids in grades K-3 practice reading and writing

Read, Write, ROAR! is a new television and online show featuring fun and engaging lessons from real Michigan teachers. Watching an episode with your child reinforces the skills your child is learning in school, and each episode comes with a printable activity to extend learning.

The program is aligned to Michigan teaching standards and uses research-based teaching practices shown to help kids become better readers.

WATCH it on broadcast television from your local PBS station, or find episodes on-demand at MichiganLearning.org.